Rating Rationale and Key Rating Drivers

The Pakistani sugar sector, recognized as the second most substantial agro-based industry within the nation, encompasses 91 mills with a collective processing capacity of roughly 80–90 million metric tons. The season ended with a sugar output of ~6.6 million tons, a ~16% decrease from the previous year’s ~7.9 million tons due to severe floods that damaged the crop and shortened the harvesting period. Despite the lower crop, the country had sufficient sugar stocks to meet the annual demand, owing to the large carryover from the previous year. Anticipated water scarcity is projected to precipitate a significant ~13.7% contraction in the forthcoming sugarcane supply for MY24, ascribed to a decrement in cultivated area and yield.
The ratings reflect Al-Abbas Sugar Mills Ltd. ('Al-Abbas' or 'the Company') diversified revenue stream emanating from sugar, ethanol, and storage facilities. Storage tank terminals provide an additional cushion to cashflows. This provides a competitive advantage to the Company mitigating volatility and industry-specific risks. Moreover, strong governance framework bodes well for the Company. The company experienced a ~40% surge in revenue to PKR ~14.5bln in MY23 (MY22: PKR 10.3bln), which stood with industry’s upward trend with an average recovery rate of ~10.52%. Rising cane cost have resulted in increasing sugar prices in the domestic market during MY23. As a result, the Company attained substantial profits from the sugar segment. Likewise, the Company also gained from the escalating ethanol prices, globally. Al-Abbas Sugar's revenue streams are propelled by sugar sales(~28%) and ethanol exports (~78%). The firm's gross profit is recorded at PKR ~4.9bln (MY22: PKR 2.3bln). Resultantly gross margin stood highest at ~34% as compared with industry peers. Despite the escalation in finance costs associated with KIBOR, the net income ascended to PKR ~3.6bln (MY22: PKR 1.9bln), reflecting a strong net margin of ~25.3% (MY22: ~18.5%). Amidst the economic tribulations and volatility of the sugar market in Pakistan, the company's export paradigm remains resilient. The Company's has shown improved working capital management, posted strong coverages and modestly leveraged capital structure which overall hovers strong financial risk profile. The leverage ratio of the company stood at ~28.5% in MY23, with short-term borrowings constituting 99% of the total debt. The profitability of Al-Abbas has been buoyed by elevated sugar and ethanol prices, ensuring the sustenance of strong and stable margins amidst market oscillations.

The ratings are dependent on the Company's ability to sustain margins with healthy coverages while maintaining necessary cushion and discipline in working capital management. Significant deterioration of relationship among shareholders leading to adverse impact on the Company's profile and/or excessive borrowings deteriorating the coverages will impact the ratings.
